Clint began his career in commercial real estate as a property manager with Investors Realty, Inc. in 2000. He moved to brokerage in 2002 specializing in landlord and tenant representation for industrial sales and leasing. His background in property management allows him to have a strong inclination as to what tenants' needs are and how landlords can best present their properties. Clint is near completion of a CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member) designation, which is awarded based on completion of graduate level coursework and high productivity.
