Growing up in an Omaha real estate family, R.J. started in the commercial real estate field in 1982. R.J.'s expertise is in working on complex projects, including: multiple parcel assemblage; user representation in a purchase or build to suit; and buildings that may have a functional or economic obsolescence. He specializes in selling older, difficult and often complicated properties. Many local and national financial institutions benefit from R.J.'s expertise in strategic planning and disposition of foreclosed properties. R.J. has advised investors and users in the development or redevelopment of their real estate assets. His experience with clients includes sales and leasing of industrial, commercial, and investment properties, as well as assisting owners.

In his spare time R.J. enjoys volunteering, biking and sports. He also enjoys traveling with his wife being outdoors.
